

The Jovial Tradesman

Folk Song

Come all you hon - est lab - ring men that

The first system of musical notation for the song. It consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The treble staff contains the melody with lyrics underneath. The bass staff contains the accompaniment. The lyrics are: 'Come all you hon - est lab - ring men that'.

work out all the day! And join with me at the

The second system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melody with lyrics: 'work out all the day! And join with me at the'. The bass staff continues the accompaniment.

Bal - ly mo to pass an hour a - way! Where

The third system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melody with lyrics: 'Bal - ly mo to pass an hour a - way! Where'. The bass staff continues the accompaniment.

we can sing and drink and be mer - ry and drive a - way all our

The fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melody with lyrics: 'we can sing and drink and be mer - ry and drive a - way all our'. The bass staff continues the accompaniment.

cares and wor - ries when Jone - s' A - le was new my boys! When

The fifth and final system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melody with lyrics: 'cares and wor - ries when Jone - s' A - le was new my boys! When'. The bass staff continues the accompaniment.

Jo - ne - s' A - le was new! The first to come in was the Plow man with sweat all on his brow.

Up with the lark at the break of day he guides his spee - gly plow. He drives his team, how they do to - il o'r hill and val - ley to turn the so - il! When Jone - s' A - le was new my boys! When Jo - ne - s' A - le was new! The next to come in was the Black - smith, his braw - ny arms all bare. And with his pint of Jone - s' Ale he has no fear or care! Through - out the day his ham - mer is swing - ing he sings when he he - ears his An - vil ring - ing! When Jone - s' A - le was new my boys! When Jo - ne - s' A - le was new! The next to come in was the tink - er and he was no small beer dri - ink - ker! And he was no small beer drin - ker to join the jov - ial crew. He told the old wo - man he'd mend her old ket - tle, oh Lord how his ham - mer and tongs did rat - tle! When Jone s' A - le was new my boys! When Jo - ne - s' A - le was new!